

ABSTRACT

SINOK SRINITA. Efforts to Increase Learning Outcomes Javeline Pass Hand Ball In Grade VIII Students SMP Negeri 13 Kota Bekasi: Physical Education Study Program Health and Recreation, Faculty of Sport Science, Jakarta State University, januari 2018.

The purpose of this research is to improve the learning result of javeline pass hand ball on the students of SMPN 13 KOTA BEKASI to make students more active in learning. The research method used is classroom action research with qualitative and quantitative data collection. This research involves 2 collaborators and done as much as 2 cycles, each cycle consist of 2 meetings. The initial condition of the students studied is physically and spiritually healthy and has been able to javeline pass well but less so smoothly and less active in learning.

The results of the first cycle as follows: 1) the teacher provides learning in accordance with the research plan and the result 10 students completed and 22 students have not completed.

The second cycle result is a reflection of the first cycle as follows: The teacher gives lessons according to the research plan and the result is 32 complete students.

The result of this research can be concluded there is improvement of student learning outcomes in learning javeline pass handball through the aid of audio visual media where at the time of cycle I there are 22 students not yet completed and cycle II all students experience mastery. From the data tesebut can be concluded that learning javeline pass hand ball through the aid of audio visual at grade VIII SMPN 13 Kota Bekasi there is change.

Januari, 2018

SS